

Major in Political Science

This worksheet is a suggested way of completing the program. The order in which you complete courses in years 2, 3 and 4 may look very different.

Admission Requirements

Completion of first-year requirements, including Political Science 1020E with a mark of at least 60%.

It is recommended that you complete the (*) courses in the years listed below but they may be completed in any year. Be mindful of the 2200-level courses being prerequisites for many of the 3000-level courses. Prerequisites are rarely waived.

Year 2

- (*) Political Science 2237E (Political Theory)
- (*) Political Science 2230E (Canadian Politics)
- (*) One of Political Science 2231E (International Relations) or 2245E (Comparative Politics)

Year 3

- 2.0 Political Science essay designated courses (E, F or G) at the 2200 level or above

Course:

Course:

Year 4

- 1.0 Political Science essay designated courses (E, F or G) at the 3000 level Course:

*Note: Courses at the 2100 level are suitable for Political Science Minors and non-Political Science students. These courses are topical and do not have essay designations. Students in the Honors Specialization or Major modules in Political Science may register in a maximum of 1.0 of these courses, but 2100-level courses will not count towards their Political Science module.
