The Nietzsche Workshop @ Western is an annual international conference that provides a forum for scholars and students to discuss the most salient issues of contemporary society in light of the critical perspectives and politico-philosophical insights of the German philosopher Friedrich Nietzsche (cf. http://polisci.cuo.ca/leilab/nietzsche.html for details). This year’s Nietzsche Workshop will take place at The New School, in Room 404, 66 West 12th Street, NYC, on Saturday the Thirteenth of April from 10:00 am to 6:00 pm. Attendance is free and open to all. The theme of the 2013 Nietzsche Workshop (which is sponsored by the Center for Transformativ Design at Parsons: The New School of Design, where the founders of the NWW, Dan Mellamphy & Nandita Biswas Mellamphy, are currently Visiting Faculty) is “Cyber-Nietzsche: Tunnels, Tightropes, Mesh-of-Networks” [facebook.com/events/134277767373721]

Professor Nandita Biswas Mellamphy & Dr. Dan Mellamphy (2012-2013 Visiting Faculty of the Center for Transformative Media at Parsons: The New School for Design), will be presenting the fourth annual Nietzsche Workshop @ Western (NWW.IV), ‘Cyber-Nietzsche: Tunnels, Tightropes, Net-&-Meshworks’, at The New School on April 13 2013, 13:00-18:00. This year’s theme is that of the relation of Friedrich Nietzsche’s philosophy to Media Studies, Cybernetics, and the so-called ‘Digital Humanities’ (Human, All too Human?). Proposals for 20-minute presentations should be sent to this email address by the end of February. For information see the NWW.IV facebook page and the previous workshops (NWW I, II & III) below. The Nietzsche Workshop @ Western is an annual international conference that provides an academic forum for scholars and students to discuss the most salient issues of contemporary society in light of the critical perspectives and politico-philosophical insights of the German philosopher Friedrich Nietzsche. The goal of the conference is to provide students and faculty with a forum to exchange and discuss controversial but innovative ideas within an academic context, all with the goal of furthering Western's international reputation for academic excellence.
