Course Introduction:
This interdisciplinary International Security course unpacks the history, theory, and practice of global security with emphasis on Cold War and post-Cold War crises.

Students will be introduced to the main historical actors and problems that have shaped international security as well as hear from different experts and diplomats active and retired.

Students will develop diplomatic skills based on the 1962 Cuban Missile Crisis, a current UN crisis, and a possible future military crisis in the South China Sea.