

POLITICS 1020E 002 Day:
INTRODUCTION TO POLITICAL SCIENCE
FIRST TERM COURSE OUTLINE:
SEPTEMBER TO DECEMBER 2018

Professor: Nigmendra Narain
Office: 519-661-2111 x85108
Cell: 519-860-3290
Email: nnarain@uwo.ca
Office: Social Sciences Centre, Room 4149
Office Hours: Tues, Wed & Thurs 2pm-3:30pm
Class Days: Tuesdays & Thursdays
Time: 11:30am – 1:00 pm
Location: North Campus Building 101

Course Objectives:
What will you learn in this Course?

(1) In the first term, students will learn some of the most important ideas, arguments, theories, and ideologies produced in the history of political thought in the West, including power, democracy, freedom, justice, liberalism, conservatism, socialism, feminism, and ecologism. In the second term, students will focus primarily on political institutions and the political processes associated with them. The topics to be covered include the following: the state, regime types: democracy and authoritarianism, political economy, political participation, political institutions, and multilevel politics.

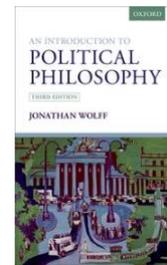

(2) In both terms, students will develop the capacity to analytically and critically think about politics. In particular, they will acquire and strengthen their abilities to: understand and analyze arguments in political texts; connect and assess them in light of current political debates; and, defend clear positions on potentially controversial political issues, such as the obligation to obey the law, the nature of justice, the legitimacy of democracy, the nature of a free society, the status of the dominant ideologies of our time, the value of political participation, and the central political institutions in the modern world.

Students will achieve objective (1) by attending lectures and tutorials regularly and by keeping up with the readings in the required course texts. Students will achieve objective (2) by writing argumentative essays, participating in tutorial discussions, and taking four exams throughout the year. The discussions and writing assignments, along with your reading and lecture attendance, will provide the practice needed to succeed in the exams.

First Term Course Texts: What must you read?

Wolff, Jonathan. An Introduction to Political Philosophy, Third Edition. Oxford: Oxford University Press, 2016.

Warburton, Nigel. Free Speech: A Very Short Introduction. Oxford: Oxford University Press, 2009. (Note: Wolff, Introduction to Political Philosophy and Warburton, Free Speech are sold together for a special price at the UWO Bookstore)

Wolff, Jonathan. Ethics and Public Policy: A Philosophical Inquiry, London and New York: Routledge, 2011.

Heywood, Andrew. Political Ideologies: An Introduction, Sixth Edition. London: Palgrave Macmillan, 2017.

First Term Course Requirements: How are you graded?

The course consists of two lectures and one tutorial meeting per week. Your grade for Term 1 will be determined as described below and is only half of your final course grade.

Tutorial Participation	5%
November Exam	15%
Essay	15%
December Exam	15%
	50%

Learning Outcomes: What are the assignments trying to teach you?

Assignment	Learning Outcomes
Tutorial Participation	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Recognize the importance of listening • Communicate verbally in an analytic and clear fashion • An awareness of the extent and limits of one's own knowledge, informed by exposure to information, concepts, theories and experience

First Term Key Dates:
What dates are most important?

- Classes begin: Thurs Sep 6
- Last Day to Add Full Course: Fri Sep 14
- Fall Reading Week: Mon Oct 8 - Fri Oct 12
- November Test: Sat Nov 3 10am-12pm
- Term 1 Essay: Fri Nov 9 10am-4pm
- Fall Term Classes end: Fri Dec 7
- Fall Term Study Days: Sat Dec 8 – Sat Dec 9
- December Exam period: Mon Dec 10 – Thurs Dec 21

Lecture Rules:
How may we be courteous and enjoy lectures?

1. When should you arrive?
Come to the class by 11:30am. Given the large number of students, we need extra time for entering and settling into the classroom.
2. When does Lecture start?
Lectures will start by 11:40am so be seated and quiet by then.
3. What if you're late?
Enter by the doors at the top of NCB. Please avoid coming in through the lower doors as it distracts your classmates.

4. Is there a break?

We usually will take a short break 12:10pm-12:20pm.

5. When does the lecture finish?

Lectures will end by 1:00pm. Please don't leave before the lecture is over: shuffling along the aisles & rustling your papers & chatting with your friends is very distracting. If you have to leave early, please sit close to an exit.

6. Why shouldn't you talk, watch videos, Facebook, etc., during Lectures?

You will miss important information for the exam. You are likely bothering your classmates & friends trying to pay attention.

7. May we take notes on a laptop, iPad, smartphone during Lectures?

Sure; while research shows those taking notes via pen-and-paper generally do better, it's really about actively listening in lectures and engaging with the concepts, ideas, examples, etc., while taking notes; if you choose to distract yourself – whether on your technology or while using pen-and-paper – you will probably do not do well in the course.

8. Can you record lectures?

Generally, no. If there is a particular issue or a necessitated accommodation, do talk to me.

9. Should you write down everything on the slides and said in lecture?

Take notes actively: see what's on the slide, listen to my explanations, examples, connections, analysis, etc. Don't just take 'dictation'; figure out what's emphasized.

10. Should you participate and ask questions in lectures?

Yes, please do. When I pose a question in class, please do raise your hand to participate. You can also ask questions in lecture; note that if a question cannot be answered in class, then email it to me or speak to me during break or after lecture.

* Participation is an important part of active learning ****

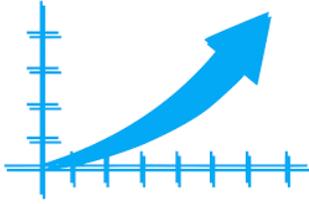

Tutorials:

What are they? Why attend & participate? What's the impact on my course grade?

Tutorials are small group meetings, led by a Teaching Assistant (TA), to discuss weekly topics, share thoughts on the Readings, and encourage public speaking skills in a supportive and constructive environment.

More tutorial details, such as discussion questions, conduct, grading and questions, will be provided in the Poli Sci 1020E Tutorial document.

Note: 10% of your course grade is based on Tutorials
Good tutorial attendance & participation leads to doing better on the essay (learning from the TA), better grades on exams (knowing tutorial questions' answers) and, most significantly, overall better course grade (possibly from 72% to 82%).
Participation in tutorial is an important part of active learning.

OWL Website: Why should I check this regularly?

To enter our OWL website, go to <http://owl.uwo.ca> to look for your "POLISCI 1020E" tab. On this website, you will find information about the class, grades, tutorial information, links to other resources, and more. Please check our Class OWL site regularly.

Important Information & Rules About the Course:
What are some general rules governing this course?

1. Necessary conditions for passing this course: you must submit Term 1 and Term 2 essays, and write all 4 exams for the course. If you miss the late submission deadlines or make-up exam dates, contact me (nnarain@uwo.ca) immediately. If you do not meet these conditions, then you will receive a failing grade for the course.

2. Pre-requisites and Anti-Requisites:
Prerequisites: none
Anti-requisites: the former Politics 020E and 021F-026G
Please Note: You are responsible for ensuring that you have successfully completed all course prerequisites, and that you have not taken an anti-requisite course. Lack of prerequisites may not be used as a basis for an appeal. If you are found to be ineligible for a course, you may be removed from it at any time and you will receive no adjustment to your fees. This decision cannot be appealed. If you find that you do not have the course prerequisites, it is in your best interest to drop the course well before the end of the add/drop period. Your prompt attention to this matter will not only help protect your academic record, but will ensure that spaces become available for students who require the course in question for graduation.” – Office of the Dean, Faculty of Social Science

3. USE your UWO/Western email account: Send and receive emails by the UWO email system so that your information is confidential and secure. Also, your non-UWO email may get caught in spam, etc., and may not get a response or review.

4. Non-medical and medical accommodation: Students should check out the Policy on Accommodation for Medical Illness (<https://studentservices.uwo.ca/secure/index.cfm>). For assignments worth 10% or more, documentation must be submitted by the student directly to their appropriate Faculty Dean’s office and not to the Instructor or TA, and the Dean’s office that will determine if accommodation is warranted. Any non-medical absences or absences for assignments worth less than 10%, will be dealt with by the Instructor on a case-by-case basis, and may include consultation with the Department of Political Science, Academic Counsellor and/or the Deans’ offices. For tutorials, note that only 9 out of 11 tutorials are considered for the grade, so 2 tutorial absences are provided, and NO further accommodation without medical documentation will be provided.

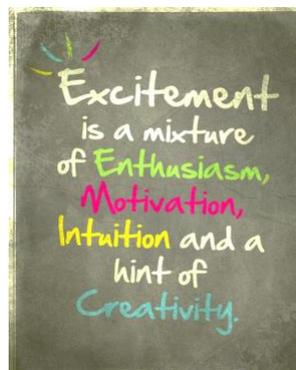

5. Statement on Use of Electronic Devices: NO electronics devices are allowed during tests and examinations.

6. Statement on Academic Offences: “Scholastic offences are taken seriously and students are directed to read the appropriate policy, specifically, the definition of what constitutes a Scholastic Offence, at the following Web site:
https://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic_policies/appeals/scholastic_discipline_undergrad.pdf

7. Concerning Turnitin: “All required papers may be subject to submission for textual similarity review to the commercial plagiarism detection software under license to the University for the detection of plagiarism. All papers submitted for such checking will be included as source documents in the reference database for the purpose of detecting plagiarism of papers subsequently submitted to the system. Use of the service is subject to the licensing agreement, currently between The University of Western Ontario and Turnitin.com (<http://www.turnitin.com>).”
Also check:
<http://www.westerncalendar.uwo.ca/PolicyPages.cfm?PolicyCategoryID=1&command=showCategory&SelectedCalendar=Live&ArchiveID>
8. Multiple-Choice Exam format checking software: “Computer-marked multiple-choice tests and/or exams may be subject to submission for similarity review by software that will check for unusual coincidences in answer patterns that may indicate cheating.”
Also check:
<http://www.westerncalendar.uwo.ca/PolicyPages.cfm?PolicyCategoryID=1&command=showCategory&SelectedCalendar=Live&ArchiveID>
9. Support Services: “Students who are in emotional/mental distress should refer to Mental Health@Western <http://www.uwo.ca/uwocom/mentalhealth/> for a complete list of options about how to obtain help.”
10. Respectful conduct and engagement: Note conduct should accord with the University of Western Ontario Student Code of Conduct, which can be accessed as a PDF from: http://studentexperience.uwo.ca/student_experience/studentconduct.html.
In general, please be respectful of and courteous to yourself, me, our TAs, your class colleagues, and others during discussions and other course engagements.

you learn, improve & do your best.*

Enjoy the Course!

APPENDIX TO UNDERGRADUATE COURSE OUTLINES DEPARTMENT OF POLITICAL SCIENCE

Prerequisite checking - the student's responsibility

"Unless you have either the requisites for this course or written special permission from your Dean to enroll in it, you may be removed from this course and it will be deleted from your record. This decision may not be appealed. You will receive no adjustment to your fees in the event that you are dropped from a course for failing to have the necessary prerequisites."

Essay course requirements

With the exception of 1000-level courses, most courses in the Department of Political Science are essay courses. Total written assignments (excluding examinations) will be at least 3,000 words in Politics 1020E, at least 5,000 words in a full course numbered 2000 or above, and at least 2,500 words in a half course numbered 2000 or above.

Use of Personal Response Systems ("Clickers")

"Personal Response Systems ("clickers") may be used in some classes. If clickers are to be used in a class, it is the responsibility of the student to ensure that the device is activated and functional. Students must see their instructor if they have any concerns about whether the clicker is malfunctioning.

Students must use only their own clicker. If clicker records are used to compute a portion of the course grade:

- the use of somebody else's clicker in class constitutes a scholastic offence,
- the possession of a clicker belonging to another student will be interpreted as an attempt to commit a scholastic offence."

Security and Confidentiality of Student Work (refer to current Western Academic Calendar (<http://www.westerncalendar.uwo.ca/>))

"Submitting or Returning Student Assignments, Tests and Exams - All student assignments, tests and exams will be handled in a secure and confidential manner. Particularly in this respect, leaving student work unattended in public areas for pickup is not permitted."

Duplication of work

Undergraduate students who submit similar assignments on closely related topics in two different courses must obtain the consent of both instructors prior to the submission of the assignment. If prior approval is not obtained, each instructor reserves the right not to accept the assignment.

Grade adjustments

In order to ensure that comparable standards are applied in political science courses, the Department may require instructors to adjust final marks to conform to Departmental guidelines.

Academic Offences

"Scholastic offences are taken seriously and students are directed to read the appropriate policy, specifically, the definition of what constitutes a Scholastic Offence, at the following Web site:

http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic_policies/appeals/scholastic_discipline_undergrad.pdf

Submission of Course Requirements

ESSAYS, ASSIGNMENTS, TAKE-HOME EXAMS MUST BE SUBMITTED ACCORDING TO PROCEDURES SPECIFIED BY YOUR INSTRUCTOR (I.E., IN CLASS, DURING OFFICE HOURS, TA'S OFFICE HOURS) OR UNDER THE INSTRUCTOR'S OFFICE DOOR.

THE MAIN OFFICE DOES NOT DATE-STAMP OR ACCEPT ANY OF THE ABOVE.

Attendance Regulations for Examinations

EXAMINATIONS/ATTENDANCE (Sen. Min. Feb.4/49, May 23/58, S.94, S.3538, S.3632, S.04-097) A student is entitled to be examined in courses in which registration is maintained, subject to the following limitations: 1) A student may be debarred from writing the final examination for failure to maintain satisfactory academic standing throughout the year. 2) Any student who, in the opinion of the instructor, is absent too frequently from class or laboratory periods in any course will be reported to the Dean of the Faculty offering the course (after due warning has been given). On the recommendation of the Department concerned, and with the permission of the Dean of that Faculty, the student will be debarred from taking the regular examination in the course. The Dean of the Faculty offering the course will communicate that decision to the Dean of the Faculty of registration.

Medical Policy, Late Assignments, etc.

Students registered in Social Science should refer to http://counselling.ssc.uwo.ca/procedures/having_problems/index.html for information on Medical Policy, Term Tests, Final Examinations, Late Assignments, Short Absences, Extended Absences, Documentation and other Academic Concerns. Non-Social Science students should refer to their home faculty's academic counselling office.

University Policy on Cheating and Academic Misconduct

Plagiarism: Students must write their essays and assignments in their own words. Whenever students take an idea, or a passage from another author, they must acknowledge their debt both by using quotation marks where appropriate and by proper referencing such as footnotes or citations. Plagiarism is a major academic offence." (see Scholastic Offence Policy in the Western Academic Calendar).

Plagiarism Checking: "All required papers may be subject to submission for textual similarity review to the commercial plagiarism detection software under license to the University for the detection of plagiarism. All papers submitted for such checking will be included as source documents in the reference database for the purpose of detecting plagiarism of papers subsequently submitted to the system. Use of the service is subject to the licensing agreement, currently between The University of Western Ontario and Turnitin.com (<http://www.turnitin.com>)."

Multiple-choice tests/exams: "Computer-marked multiple-choice tests and/or exams may be subject to submission for similarity review by software that will check for unusual coincidences in answer patterns that may indicate cheating."

Note: Information excerpted and quoted above are Senate regulations from the Handbook of Scholarship and Academic Policy. http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/academic_policies/index.html

PLAGIARISM*

In writing scholarly papers, you must keep firmly in mind the need to avoid plagiarism. Plagiarism is the unacknowledged borrowing of another writer's words or ideas. Different forms of writing require different types of acknowledgement. The following rules pertain to the acknowledgements necessary in academic papers.

A. In using another writer's words, you must both place the words in quotation marks and acknowledge that the words are those of another writer.

You are plagiarizing if you use a sequence of words, a sentence or a paragraph taken from other writers without acknowledging them to be theirs. Acknowledgement is indicated either by (1) mentioning the author and work from which the words are borrowed in the text of your paper; or by (2) placing a footnote number at the end of the quotation in your text, and including a correspondingly numbered footnote at the bottom of the page (or in a separate reference section at the end of your essay). This footnote should indicate author, title of the work, place and date of publication, and page number.

Method (2) given above is usually preferable for academic essays because it provides the reader with more information about your sources and leaves your text uncluttered with parenthetical and tangential references. In either case words taken from another author must be enclosed in quotation marks or set off from your text by single spacing and indentation in such a way that they cannot be mistaken for your own words. Note that you cannot avoid indicating quotation simply by changing a word or phrase in a sentence or paragraph which is not your own.

B. In adopting other writers' ideas, you must acknowledge that they are theirs.

You are plagiarizing if you adopt, summarize, or paraphrase other writers' trains of argument, ideas or sequences of ideas without acknowledging their authorship according to the method of acknowledgement given in 'A' above. Since the words are your own, they need not be enclosed in quotation marks. Be certain, however, that the words you use are entirely your own; where you must use words or phrases from your source, these should be enclosed in quotation marks, as in 'A' above.

Clearly, it is possible for you to formulate arguments or ideas independently of another writer who has expounded the same ideas, and whom you have not read. Where you got your ideas is the important consideration here. Do not be afraid to present an argument or idea without acknowledgement to another writer, if you have arrived at it entirely independently. Acknowledge it if you have derived it from a source outside your own thinking on the subject.

In short, use of acknowledgements and, when necessary, quotation marks is necessary to distinguish clearly between what is yours and what is not. Since the rules have been explained to you, if you fail to make this distinction your instructor very likely will do so for you, and they will be forced to regard your omission as intentional literary theft. Plagiarism is a serious offence which may result in a student's receiving an 'F' in a course or, in extreme cases in their suspension from the University.
